

COMMON THIEF

Recorded by David Cassidy on his album "The Higher They Climb, The Harder They Fall" on the RCA Label

*Look at me now, see where I've been
It ain't very pretty down on Bitter End
What I was for just wasn't for me
She thought she could steal love that belonged to me*

CHORUS

*And if that's your belief
Then you're no better than a common thief
And if that's your belief
You're no better than a common thief*

*Look at me now, don't turn away
You'll see I'm the same as I was just the other day
I was for you but you just used me
You thought you could steal love that belonged to me*

CHORUS

*Look at me now, see where I've been Ain't very pretty down on Bitter End
The one I was for, well she just wasn't for me
She thought she could steal love that belonged to me*

REPEAT CHORUS UNTIL FADE

Words and music by Bill House
Reproduced by kind permission of Sunbury Music Ltd.

