

time again, and maybe an inferior end-product. Nobody can tell about that either way. But David preferred to go for certainties. And who can blame him?

So the new album will feature both Steve Ross and Bill House on guitar — as well as David, of course. Both are very close friends. In fact, Steve and David have been pals since way back and share countless memories of early days on the road together.

His friendship with Bill doesn't go back quite so far as that. But it stands to reason Bill had to see the recording through, since he was the guy who was in on its first beginnings — out there on the lawn in Hawaii. That's the view David took of the situation anyway. He reckoned Bill had put so much into that album before they ever set foot into a studio, that he wasn't going to see him barred from the final production — no way.

He was also pretty fixed on having Ricky Fataar and Bryan Garofolo with him. Now these are two names that should have a familiar ring to you — even before they started working with David.

Bryan's made quite a name for himself as Joe Walsh's bass player — look back to our August issue to see a pic of David with his wife. And Ricky is, of course, ex-Beach Boy, along with Bruce Johnston who's been working so closely with David during the past year or so.

I hardly need to tell you that the partnership is still looking good. Bruce is helping

We have had so many letters from readers asking if they can buy the original photos that we have published in the David Cassidy Magazine that we have decided to make it possible for you to buy the four published recently. All the photos are exactly the same as the original glossy prints, 10" x 8" in size, that we obtain direct from Hollywood to produce every issue of the magazine. They are NOT just printed reproductions.

Prices are: 1 10" x 8" glossy print 30p each inc. p.&.p.
2 " " " 25p each " "
3 " " " 24p each " "
4 " " " 20p each " "

To order just send a letter stating which prints you want, referring to them by the reference letters that you see below each photograph on this page, i.e. either A, B, C, or D, and enclosing a postal order or cheque for the appropriate amount, i.e. one print 30p, two prints 56p, three prints, 72p, four prints 80p. You can, of course, order as many of each print as you like, if you want to include a friend's requirements in with your own.

Don't forget to print your name and address very clearly in block capitals and make your postal order or cheque payable to Beat Publications Ltd. and cross it with two parallel lines from top to bottom. Send your order to:
