

YOUR LETTERS

COLLECTORS ITEMS

Dear Pat,

I have tapes of the interviews that David gave on Radio 1 with Tony Blackburn and Capital's "Hulabaloo". Would anyone like to swap issues 1, 2 and 3 of the Official Mag for these cassettes? I would like to hear from them.

KAY CHESTERMAN, 31 Whitehouse Avenue, Boreham Wood, Herts.

I don't know how many people will be prepared to give up those collectors items Kay, but I hope that you're successful in your quest anyway. ED.

CASSIDY CONVERT

Dear Pat

I'm sending this letter from Greece, and that's why I'm probably a bit later than most people in writing about David's new album. A friend of mine who is not a Cassidy fan like me, brought it for me from England and when he heard it he wished that he'd bought two copies!! I think that the album is really great. I particularly like the song "Common Thief", but my mother gets so angry with me for playing it all the time, (it's on the record player now!) Each time it begins I wait for the clobber over the head! Luckily it hasn't happened yet!

ROBERT SNADDON, 44 Tatoloy Road, Kiffissia, Athens, Greece.

Thanks for the letter Robert. You're not the only person to tell us about a convert to Cassidyism. Great it is too! ED.

LOST BADGE

Dear Pat,

I would like to know if anyone has got a spare "I Write The Songs" badge. They were given out by RCA during David's last visit, and unfortunately mine was on a cardigan which I left on the train! So, — if anyone has got a spare one which I could buy or swap for something else, I'd like to hear from them.

LYNNE SINGFIELD, 20A Holme Close, Cheshunt, Herts EN8 8ST.

Can anyone put Lynne out of her misery? — Sorry about the cardigan Lynne. ED.

FAMILY NAME

Dear Pat,

Hi! I thought that I'd write in and let everyone know where the name "Cassidy" comes from. Well, it's derived from the Irish form "O'CaSIDE" The Cassidy family originated in County Feramanagh where they served the Maguire's as physicians. The name is common throughout Ireland.

KATHY DOCKERY, 586 Saffron Lane, Leicester.

Now we all know Kathy! That's some very interesting info that you've dug out for us all there. Can't really imagine David as a doctor though! ED.

TAPE LOAN?

Dear Pat,

I would be very grateful if you would print this letter in the hope that some kind-hearted David Cassidy fan will read it. What I would like is someone to lend me a recording of David's interview with Tony Blackburn when he was here to promote his new single. I was unable to tape this because I was at school, and I was very disappointed. I promise to return the tape safely.

LYNNE TAYLOR, 40 North Deeside Road, Aberdeen, Scotland.

Perhaps you could get together with Kay, whose letter you'll also find on this page Lynne. Otherwise, I'm sure that there'll be another Cassidy fan who'll help you. ED.
