Hi!

Well, I'm afraid there's still a big question mark over David's proposed concerts in this country—it now looks as if they'll be taking place early next year—but I think you'll agree that David did his best to make it up to us earlier this month!

You see, David realises that there are a lot of fans here who'll want to go along to see him, and, of course, he'll want to see as many fans as possible, so he's trying to organise his concerts to be held at places that are large enough for such a venue. And that's not very easy, because the places that are big enough just aren't available for hire. So you see, David's got a problem, and he won't be pushed into appearing somewhere that'll only hold a small amount of fans—he wants everything to be right and until it is, I'm afraid we won't be able to tell you where or when the concerts will be taking place. But, if we do have any news between now and the next issue of The David Cassidy Magazine, we'll print it in either Superstar (which will be in your newsagent's around the 2nd of next month) or in the Mickie Message and Songbook (which is available now). Okay?

Actually, while I was talking to David, he told me to tell you how knocked out he is by all the letters he's been receiving from fans living in places like Manchester, Glasgow, Barnsley, Torquay—in fact he seems to have fans everywhere. He finds it really hard to believe some of the town names in England—he told me he really wishes that he could find time to visit places like Six Mile Bottom and Burnt Oak—just to name two!! One day perhaps!

A lot of you have written in to tell me that when you go to your newsagents each month to collect either Superstar, Mickie, or The David Cassidy Magazine, you find that all the copies have already been sold. Well, one way to get round this problem is to ask your newsagent nicely if he would keep a copy of each magazine by for you each month and he'll be only too happy to oblige. That's all you have to do!

I wish, oh, I wish that I had extra space to print more of the super letters you send in to me. You know I really look forward to reading them each week. It really helps me get to know you all a lot better but please don't be upset if you don't see your letter in print. I try to select as many different types of letters as possible each month, so if yours is different then there is more chance of me printing it. And also it makes reading your letters that much more enjoyable!

We've got some really super reading for you in this issue, including an insight into what sort of girl turns David on! It could even be you! So I'd better not delay you further, I know you can't wait to find out!

See you all next month,
