

YOUR LETTERS

Kitten Cassidy

Dear Ed,
Recently I got a little white kitten and I was stuck for a name for him.

The other day I was listening to David's "Cherish" album when the kitten jumped on to the record player and listened with me. When the record finished, he mewed until I put it on again! He seems to love David's singing as much as I do.

So I just had to call him . . . CASSIDY!!!

On Friendship

Here is a poem written by a David Cassidy fan in Malaysia for all his fans in England.

On Friendship
Good friends are like precious stones, rare and few,
Unlike other things that are best when they're new.
Nothing can separate two close and bosom friends

Until, perhaps, the day when the world ends.

Really Happy

Dear Ed,
I'd just like to say that I'm not surprised that David doesn't want to get divorced when he's married.

I only hope that when he marries he'll be really happy and that his marriage will last - he certainly deserves it after all the heartache he has been through.

ANGELA BEALL, BRIERFIELD, LANCES.
I know that when David reads this, Angela, he will be really grateful for your generous good wishes. And I'm sure everyone else agrees with you.

Two Pix Problem Solved!

Dear Ed,
I have an idea for solving the problem of having two pix of David on consecutive pages so that you don't know which one to stick up on the wall.

Well, first of all, find a rod or a straight piece of stick. Then thread the pix together to form a mobile, hang it from your ceiling and you can see both photographs!

What a great idea, Vyvyan! Pix of David on the ceiling are enough to make us all want to stay in bed all day gazing upwards! There's going to be some stiff necks in this office as well.

David's Voice

Dear Ed,
I was really thrilled to hear David's voice on the radio. Before he started to talk, with his friendly voice, I could hear my heart beating so hard. And then when I heard his voice it nearly stopped! I was really happy to hear him and I guess I felt like he was talking to me and sitting next to me.

I recorded his conversation so I can hear it anytime I want, but I still, and always will, get this feeling whenever I listen to it.

I must say thank you to David for being so friendly. I'm dying to go to his concert next year, and I'll love him for ever!

David's warm personality really came over on his radio and television broadcasts this trip. We can't wait till spring!

Cured By David

Dear Ed,
This fabulous mag has done wonders for me as I was in my bed suffering from depression for two weeks, as all my posters and pix of David had been lying beside a pile of salvage and they were all thrown out with it!

Everyone tried to cheer me up with David's "Cherish" album, but my schoolpals knew the tonic I needed. They bought me a full life-size poster of David with a fantastic cheer-up smile! They also bought me a mirror with Darling David on the back and an official David mag!

This cheered me up so much and I started a new collection at once as soon as I had read it. I will get it every month now, so thanks a million!
LINDA BURRELL, BANNOCKBURN, SCOTLAND.

We're really glad you're feeling better now, Linda, and that we did so much to help you! Hope you'll never get so depressed again - perhaps you can think of a fool-proof, safe place to keep your collection, like a locked drawer - as long as you don't lose the key!
ED.
