Hi!

You might have been wondering why we didn't say more about that fantastic visit of David's last month. The answer is easy - we didn't want to give away any of the special stories we were saving for this month - especially about visiting David on his yacht! We knew you'd be dying to hear all about that!!!

Incidentally, David was knocked out with all your presents and letters which I gave him while he was over here - specially the ones you actually made yourselves. He told me he wished he could write to you all personally, but if he tried then he wouldn't have any time left for his T.V. series, or anything else come to that! He also said that he wished he could have spent a couple of weeks in Britain, so that he could have met many more of you and seen something of the country. But he had to rush off back to the States to carry on with his busy work schedule. The very last thing he said before he left was to pass on his very grateful THANKS to everyone for the wonderful reception you gave him.

David can't wait to come back and actually sing to us all, and he hopes that this will be possible in the spring. In the meantime, lucky London David devotees are going to see twelve new Partridge Family programmes starting on the 21st of this month, on London Weekend Television. They are actually screening thirteen, as the first will probably be a re-showing of the first-ever Partridge programme shown over here. I bet nobody will miss a single chance of seeing David on Saturdays and, with a bit of luck the other commercial TV stations everywhere else in Britain will wake up and take the hint! It's awful to think of all those people who still won't be able to see the show.

By the way, what has happened to all our budding poets? No-one has sent me a poem for ages and we love putting them on the letters page. So get out your rusty old rhyme schemes and see what you can do!

Another thing I must tell you before I forget is that we kept back a special stock of the early David Cassidy magazines. The cost is 18p each, including postage, so if you want to send in for one or more just send a Postal Order or cheque (no cash, please) made payable to The David Cassidy Magazine and crossed with two lines from top to bottom to the following address: BACK ISSUES, DAVID CASSIDY MAGAZINE, 58 Parker Street, London WC2B 5QB. PLEASE don't forget to write your name and address very clearly at the top of your letter and also list the numbers of the mags you want. The issues were No. 1 June, No. 2 July, No. 3 August, and No. 4 September.

Hope you're enjoying reading and singing along to the MICKIE Message and Songbook. There's a David Cassidy or Partridge Family song in EVERY issue. No. 3 had "How Can I Be Sure" (what a fabulous song) and MICKIE No. 4 which is on sale now has "Echo Valley 2-6809".
