Hello there!

Here we are with a Cassidy Christmas right around the corner — already!

All I hope is that you are further ahead with your Christmas shopping than David was when I last spoke to him. He reckons that, on past form, if he gets his fitted in before Christmas Eve — then he's doing pretty well!

When we talked, he was still undecided about where he'd be at Christmas this year. Last year he spent a quiet few days at home in L.A. and his mother, Evelyn, went out there to be with him. David remembers that as being a wonderful Christmas, when he got a chance to relax and be himself for a while without any pressures.

This year, though, he's got the urge to travel again. So he's tossing up right now between the idea of sunshine and sea in Hawaii for a couple of weeks, and sunshine and snow on a skiing holiday.

According to David, it will all depend on his acting and singing commitments — especially on the timing of the film he's planning to make this Spring. That and his European concert tour are the big things in David's life right now, so he'll be organising all his pleasure and leisure activities around them.

Anyway, I know you'll all want to join me in wishing David the most wonderful Christmas in the world — wherever he finally decides to spend it and whatever he decides to do!

*Bell Records have certainly done their bit to help David wish every one of his British fans a happy Christmas by releasing The Partridge Family Christmas Card album and David's latest single, "Rock Me, Baby" over here in time for both discs to find their way into your Christmas stocking If you can wait till then before having them spinning round on your turn-table at home!*

Anyway, I hope that you'll all be able to hear plenty of David during the holiday. And it's worth remembering that the "Rock Me, Baby" album will be hitting the British scene in January, so you know what to do with some of your Christmas money at least!

How does the idea of seeing David at the top of both charts grab you? It's definitely a hot (or hit — oops sorry) possibility. And you're the folk who can bring it off for him.

He's already done his bit . . . by making the grooviest discs ever for you. And what's specially nice is that you can be sure that, on these two "Rock Me, Baby" records, David is making the kind of music he, personally, wants to make. So now's your chance to take a peek into David's music mind!

All I've got room for now is to wish YOU a

HAPPY CHRISTMAS, 1972 DC.

And, if you don't know what those letters stand for !!!

Well, I'm speechless! Who else could they stand for?

Till 1973 DC, then, Luv from

Susie
