

YOUR LETTERS

David's Aid

Dear Ed,

Recently I went out to buy my sister a dress as a birthday present. As both of us have the same measurements, I thought I would go into the changing room to try it on.

I found a dress which I thought my sister would like, went in to try it on and I just couldn't make up my mind whether or not to buy it. Then suddenly the assistants put a record on—guess what? It was "How Can I Be Sure?" Immediately I was sure that I was doing the right thing in buying this particular dress (which, incidentally, she liked very much). I told my sister about the trouble I had had in deciding about the dress and she asked me what had caused me to finally make up my mind. My reply was David Cassidy! My poor sister was very baffled.

P.S. David, you and I should stick together, we've got good taste!

MARJORIE NEWTON,
GATESHEAD, CO. DURHAM.

I wonder if David has helped anybody else to make decisions in this way? If he has, write in and tell us about it. ED

A Short Note

Dear Pat,

I was just reading through my David Cassidy Mag. when I came to the letter page and read about Ali Stride of Balcombe, Sussex, who has the problem of being five foot tall.

Imagine my problem—I am only four foot seven and am almost 16 years old. I hope to meet David one day but I must get bigger first!

YVONNE DUNCAN,
BERDEEN, SCOTLAND.

If you are lucky enough to meet David, Yvonne, I don't think it will matter how small or tall you are. David likes people just as they are, and has no pre-arranged tastes for any kind of girl in particular. That's one of the great things about him. If people are warm, friendly and sincere, David will like them even if they are only three feet tall! ED

Slipper Head

Dear Ed,

You will probably think I must be thick, but in the first issue of the David Cassidy Mag. there is a photo captioned "I bet you have never seen a picture of David like this". Well, what I would like to know is what is the peculiar thing on top of David's poor head. Is it a slipper? I would be very grateful if you could give me the answer in the next Mag.

CAROL,
A DEVOTED DAVID FAN.

You'll kick yourself when you find out what it is... believe it or not, it's a hairbrush! The photographer caught David just as he was tidying his hair specially for the camera. ED

Poet's Exchange

Dear Pat,

We think your mag. is super

It really is the best

With all those facts on David

It outshines all the rest.

We love to read his monthly letter

Though the one about Kula was drastic.

We think your mag. is well worthwhile

And the pictures inside are fantastic.

There's just one thing that niggles us,

My friend and I are in a fix.

What is it that's written on David's belt

In issue number six?

S. WASSALL and A. MARLAND
(Two curious D.C. Fans), CHESHIRE.

We sat and thought and strained our eyes

Grabbed the phone and then

Found out the word was 'CAPTAIN'

Written with a wobbly pen! ED

Scottish Letters

Dear Pat,

Please could you pass on this message to all Scottish fans of David and the Partridge Family. If you are as desperate as we are to see David & Co. back on our screens, please write and say so 'cos we intend to take all your letters to the STV Studios in Glasgow in a few weeks' time. All you have to do is to write a letter saying how much you would like to see The Partridge Family back on television and address it to:

LOUISE GONNELLA,
97 UNION ST., LARKHALL, LANARKSHIRE,
SCOTLAND.

Good luck, Louise. I'm sure you'll get lots of replies and look what results people in other areas of Britain have achieved! ED
