Hi!

This month is definitely David's! Fortunately, we have just received his final schedule in time for this issue. He lands in Europe at Dortmund, Germany on March 1st, and continues as follows: 2nd, David rests and then on the 3rd he attends Radio Luxembourg's Golden Lion Awards at the Westhallen; 4th he travels to Paris and rests there on the 5th.

The 6th and 7th will find David rehearsing and taping a television show for the French network ORTF-TV in Paris. On the 8th, he goes to Antwerp for a show at the Queen Elizabeth Hall. The next day, the 9th, finds David in Offenbach. On the 10th, he will be doing a Radio Two special in Luxembourg. Then to Rotterdam on the 11th, and finally he'll be back in Britain! The week we've all been waiting for since last September begins on the 12th, with David's arrival and ends all too soon with his departure on the 18th.

A big disappointment — both to David and to us — was the failure to arrange for the close-circuit television broadcasts we mentioned last month. We had hoped that this would be a second-best alternative for those fans who couldn't see David live. But then you can't always get what you want.

As most of you know, in the December issue of David Cassidy Magazine, number 7, we published a photograph of David and a mystery girl. We received the photograph from America and the caption on the back of the pic read "David and Jan Freeman". So when we started the competition, we believed that "the gal on the left" was Jan, David's stand in. But just to be sure, we posted the pic to David and asked him to verify if it was Jan (hold on, there is an end to this story!).

Well, you must have guessed by now, the caption was WRONG. Even David himself didn't recognise the girl. But he realised that all of you who entered the competition would be disappointed, and we've managed to get hold of 100 tickets for the forthcoming concerts, so we're having another competition in this month's magazine. The details are announced on page 11 and the 50 lucky winners will receive 2 tickets each to one of David's concerts. The tickets are evenly split between London and Manchester . . . Oh, and before we forget, we've kept all the entries from the first contest, so anyone who entered last time is entitled to two entries this time.

We hope you won't be too hard on us for our giant boob. But one thing is certain: the winners of this contest will be among the luckiest people in Britain. They'll have the best seats available to see David LIVE! And it's hard to beat that.
