few years. But he knows that life and success too. He tries to express that love through his will continue to place great demands upon him, and he realises that inevitably he will change as he grows older. He has great faith in Shirley's philosophy, however, and he is going to continue to work very hard to gain a true understanding of himself.

TO GIVE AND RECEIVE LOVE...

David cherishes the love of his millions of fans and he wants them to know that he loves them music, and he hopes that when they listen to his songs, his fans receive his message of love loud and clear. David believes that a man is happiest when he shares his life with a woman, so he hopes that one day he will find a girl with whom he can share his life... a girl who is just right for him. He'll know her when she comes along, for David is no stranger to love... And he wants all his fans to remember, always, that they have a piece of his heart...

Here's a word game that will test your knowledge of the pop scene, past and present. It's all about names . . . of the stars, their families, and their hits. Put the answers to the eleven questions in the boxes at the right. Then arrange the circled letters to form the name of a top British pop artist.

1) Carly Simon's husband is James
Gilbert O'Sullivan once sang about a little girl named
3) The first name of David Essex's co-star in the film That'll Be the Day is
4) The Osmonds had a hit with " Horses"
5) Jermaine Jackson's wife's name is	0000
6) David Bowie sang about "The Jean"
7) Merrill Osmond's middle name is	0000
8) John Lennon's wife's name is
The Australian pop star who spent six years in England and now lives in Hollywood is Rick	0000000000
10) Sweet's lead singer is Brian
11) Paul McCartney's wife's name is Now arrange the circled letters to form the name of our mystery man. Here's a hint: He looks tops in a hat! He's

To check your answers, just flip this page upside-down! 11) Linda Mystery Man: Noddy Holder 8) Yoko 9) Springfield 10) Connolly 4) Crazy 5) Hazel 6) Genie 7) Davis Answers: 1) Taylor 2) Clair 3) Ringo