“IT PISSSED OFF everybody that was really profiting from the business of David Cassidy. I had fan letters that came to me – and there were hundreds of thousands of them, literally – in defense of me by fans of mine, that said, ‘Oh David, I know that you couldn’t possibly have done this because I know that you would never have posed nude for photographs.’ And the fact was, I had, had willingly done so, had thought about it. I scratched my head and thought, You know, this David Cassidy business has really gotten outta hand.”
