

DAVID CASSIDY

HOW YOU CAN GET TO KNOW HIM!

IN THE JULY ISSUE of 16, you found out how you could meet a groovy guy named David Cassidy. In that issue, 16 also promised to tell you how to get to know David — how to find out where he hangs out and, if possible, be there when he is there.

The first and foremost place you can find David without fail every weekday (after June 1) from 7 A.M. to 6 P.M. is the Screen Gems-Columbia studio at 1334 N. Beachwood Drive in Hollywood. For it's there that David, along with the rest of the Partridge family (Shirley Jones, Susan Dey, Danny Bonaduce, Suzanne Crough and Jeremy Gelbwaks), will be filming the brand new ABC-TV series.

The Partridge family cast — either together or as individuals or duets — will also be popping up in towns and cities all over America throughout the summer to do promotions for the fall TV season. For instance — David and his step-mom Shirley Jones may show up in cities like Dallas, Duluth or Chicago (not for sure — these cities are just given as examples). David may also visit smaller cities and towns that have an ABC outlet and that will feature The Partridge Family during the forthcoming TV season. David's TV promo trips will be last-minute decisions — so keep your fingers crossed and your eyes peeled to your local newspaper, just in case David Cassidy comes your way this summer!

LAS VEGAS TOO!

Late in June, the entire cast of the Partridge family plan to take a two-day "press junket" to Las Vegas. David and the rest of the Partridge regulars will be royally ensconced in the famous Caesar's Palace Hotel — along with 16's editor Gloria Stavers and various other members of the press. If you're a 16 or 16 SPEC reader and you can possibly get to Vegas in late June, be sure to go straight to Caesar's Palace. If you cannot get through to David's room for some reason, then — by all means — call Gloria and she'll do the best she can to arrange a personal introduction between you and David Cassidy!

Finally, if luck is just not with you this summer (as far as meeting David Cassidy goes, that is) — then hang in there, cos here's more good news! David will soon be cutting and releasing single and long-playing records on the Bell label. Not only will you be able to buy a groovy single or an LP of David Cassidy singing — you'll find the lyrics to all of his songs printed exclusively in 16 Magazine or 16 SPEC! What's more, the Partridge family as a group will be recording too — and those lyrics also will be exclusively in 16 or 16 SPEC!

Anyway you look at it, you have a groovy summer ahead! How can it be otherwise — when you're going to meet and get to know David Cassidy?!
