hear from you!

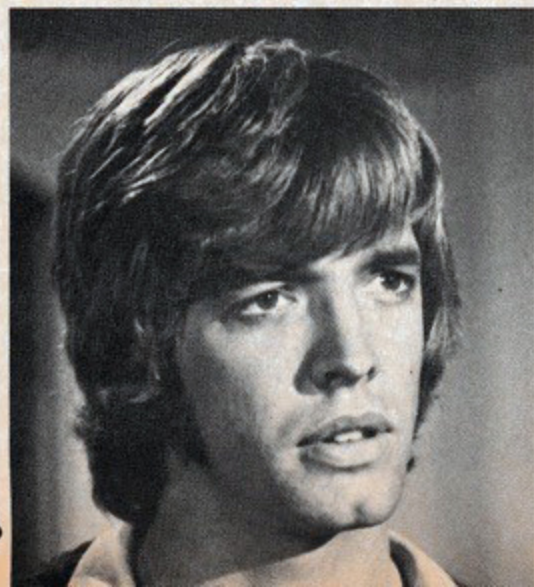

How about the new look of FaVE this month? We knew you'd enjoy having more of those groovy color pinups to decorate your walls with, so we didn't want to wait a minute longer to bring them to you! Drop me a line and let me know who you'd like us to feature in color in future months!

The FaVE offices have been busier than usual the past few weeks because we're all talking to the young actors and actresses who will be starring on TV series coming up this fall. I thought you'd like to know what happens before you finally get to see a new show, and I asked "Young Rebels" star Rick Ely to explain it for me.

"You film just one show initially," says Rick, "and this is called the 'pilot' which then has to be sold to a network like ABC, etc. Lots of pilots are made and never sold, so there's a waiting period before you find out that's very nervewracking for everyone involved. Even after 'Rebels' sold, I could hardly bring myself to believe it!

"Then the network finds sponsors for the show," he continues, "and the pilot is usually used as the 'spinoff' or first show of the TV season. Work starts on the remainder of the shows in June or July. I couldn't wait to start, because the waiting around really makes me nervous!"

The hard work involved is obviously RICK ADMITS he's kind of a serious guy. He was interested in a psychology career before acting won.

HAPPY NEWLYWEDS are Bob Cow-sill and the former Nanci Roberts. They were married June 6 in Glendale.

something Rick Ely thrives on, 'coz when he was here he looked better than ever! He was wearing a bright striped shirt and a fantastic tan. Read more about Rick on page 17!

I was lucky enough to see sneak previews of "Rebels" as well as two other new ABC TV series, "The Partridge Family" and "The Interns," and all I can say is, there's lots of good watching in store for all of us!

"The Interns" is all about the busy doings of a large hospital and there are many exciting new actors in it. One that I particularly liked was Chris Stone, the handsome blond who is the girl-chaser of the group. In private life, Chris isn't chasing, because he and Susan Tolsky (remember Bidy of "Here Come the Brides?") are a steady item!

Of all the new shows I've seen, though, my very favorite is "The Partridge Family!" All about the adventures of a widowed mother (Shirley Jones) and her five musical children and their adventures in show business.

You'll love every one of them, especially David Cassidy who you know already! The show is so fast-paced and funny that your parents are going to end up watching it with you!

Danny Thomas brings his family back to TV this season—(remember "Make Room For Daddy?") Angela Cartwright came by yesterday and brought me up to date on this one, which again stars her and Rusty Hamer as Danny's two children.

"Rusty will be a medical student on the show," she said, "and I'm looking forward to all of us being together again!" Angela, who turns 18 next month, has been keeping very busy with her modeling career. She's worked with all the top fashion magazines, and no wonder! She's an absolutely beautiful girl, and as sweet as she is pretty! She showed me her professional portfolio (a book of photographs that every model carries with her to job interviews to show how photogenic she is) and it's very impressive! Angela has such a slim figure I had to ask her if she had any dieting secrets to pass along to you readers.

"Not really," she laughed. "I just cut down on everything when I see I'm gaining weight. The magic word in keeping thin if you put on pounds easily—and I do!—is discipline!"

YOU'RE GOING to love "The Partridge Family," and just wait until you hear some of their groovy music!
