

FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES BY JOHNNY JASON

If you haven't already seen the "Dark Shadows" movie, "House of Dark Shadows," see it. And, if you aren't already a full-fledged JONATHAN FRID fan, you will be after this! In his role as vampire BARNABAS COLLINS, JONATHAN's got the audience on his side from the very beginning. Even when he goes about biting necks and causing all kinds of blood and gore, the audience faithfully cheers him on, even hissing the hero who disposes of him in the end. Although the film is done in the old horror-movie style and abounds in violence, there are moments of subtle humor that younger audiences might not be aware of. It's very unusual for laughter in a theater during a horror movie, but those present when I was, apparently got caught up in FRID's personality. He plays the role in the movie much lighter than his television BARNABAS, sort of tongue-in-cheek, and I think the audience sort of feels this, which makes the film perfectly delightful... Perhaps it's a good thing that "That Girl" MARLO THOMAS is leaving the series after its fifth season. I don't really see how the cast and crew took so much of her pushing around these years. MARLO, who started at the top, isn't called "The Iron Butterfly" for nothing. She checks all the film that's shot, and if she doesn't look well or doesn't like a certain scene, she has it re-shot. Usually this sort of thing is up to the producer or director. MARLO plans to have a movie fling at Paramount where she hopes to become a big comedy star. Her recent film, "Jenny" died at the box office, so we aren't sure just how thrilled Paramount executives are with her plans. However, MARLO always seems to get what she wants... DESI ARNAZ, JR. is also deserting his show, "Here's Lucy," but only for a brief fling in motion pictures. He'll play a high school lad in "Red Sky at Morning"... One movie you should definitely try to see is the much talked-about "Elvis Summer Festival," which might be called simply "ELVIS." Due in November, the film will be in documentary style, showing the King during rehearsals, on stage, and a personal side. The show also devotes about 20 minutes covering EL-

DAVID CASSIDY & RICK ELY often see each other at Columbia Ranch.

PEGGY LIPTON—she'll take pants.

VIS PRESLEY's many fans. Included will be FAVE's own friend, Miss ANN MOSES, editor of Tiger Beat. She's about the biggest PRESLEY fan in town and always goes to his Las Vegas openings to sit ringside... RICK ELY, star of "The Young Rebels," recently took a week off work to get in some camping. RICK says he's definitely a nature lover and he loves cooking outdoors and sleeping under the stars. He's been really busy lately, with filming and recording—right! He's a great singer, so watch for his records... Speaking of great singers, PEGGY LIPTON is definitely NOT one. Caught her performance on TOM JONES and wished I hadn't. In the first place, PEGGY shouldn't have tackled such a "soulful" song. Her voice just doesn't come up to it. Secondly, I don't see how she could have felt like a "Natural Woman" in her Levis jacket and pants. PEGGY has a darling figure and she's so petite she does wonders to a dress. She really should wear one more often, and smile a little more, too... The CARPENTERS, who sing the hit, "Close to You," have a new single out. It's the theme song for Crocker-

KAREN VALENTINE—mini over midi.