

SHIRLEY JONES & DAVID CASSIDY have a ball with "Partridge Family" music.

Citizen's National Bank. Here in California, the song's played quite a bit on television, whenever the Bank's ads come on. It's really a nice sound, goes something like "You've only just begun to live." The CARPENTERS had another record on the charts a while back in time. The radio stations have been playing it quite a bit now so maybe you've heard it. It's a slow version of the BEATLE's "Ticket to Ride" . . . DINO, DESI and BILLY have put out a new sound too. After a couple of years of zero, they've come up with a hit, "Lady Love." Also, they've gone into producing. DINO and BILLY wrote and produced DINO's dad DEAN's newest easy listening single "Come On Down" . . . Another group making news is the DAVE CLARK FIVE. Remember

Since they've already tackled sex, race relations, broken homes and such, we wonder just what Komack has in mind. After all, Eddie (BRANDON CURZ) is only eight . . . Well, CBS has done it again. They "asked" MIKE FARREL and CHRISTOPHER STONE of "The Interns" series, to remove peace symbols from around their necks during filming. The network didn't want to offend anyone . . . NANCY SINATRA's opening at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas really bombed out. Although Daddy Frank even went so far as to invite PRINCESS MARGARET and 200 top Hollywood folks to a three day all paid bash, the audio system went out of wack, the flowers on stage caught on the curtains and kept going up and down between numbers and NANCY didn't quite come them from the BEATLE's days? DC 5 fans won't be as happy with this news though as DDB's fans are. The five have decided to split for good. Ah well, that's the way it goes. Personally, I thought the group split years ago . . . Something new will be added to "The Courtship of Eddie's Father" this season — "heavy rock music." That's what we hear from actor-producer James Komack, who plays the role of Norman Tinker on the show. We also heard him tell a friend that the show will cover some "very adventurous and new subjects."

out as the star of the show. Leave it up to the OSMOND BROTHERS to capture hearts. The audience gave the boys a practically standing ovation, and you could sense the electricity they produced in the audience when on stage. The OSMONDS entire family is staying in Las Vegas during the length of the show and 10 year old MARIE OSMOND, hasn't missed a performance. She sits backstage every time, completely enraptured by her groovy brothers. ALAN OSMOND tells us that 6 year old JIMMY, who does a solo, practices his number every day before a mirror in order to have it perfect . . . On the television tube, FRED WILIAMSON, will be starring as Julia's (DIHANN CARROLL) new steady. He'll play a James Bond type character . . . KAREN VALENTINE may be a full-fledged teacher on "Room 222" when classes resume on ABC, but she's also planning to become a student again. KAREN has begun a series of sewing lessons so that she can wage her own war against the midi-skirt . . . BRIDGET HANLEY has been signed to guest in a segment of "Nanny and the Professor" so watch your television guide for her name. THE OSMOND BROTHERS have been signed for an "Ed Sullivan" show, so watch for them, too, and BOBBY SHERMAN will do a spot on "Don Knotts" . . . DAVID CASSIDY, SHIRLEY JONES and DAVE MADDEN, all returned home safely from their recent promotional tour for "The Partridge Family." You probably have heard the new single record by the Partridges by now. It's called "I Think I Love You." They've also completed work on their first album, and it sounds like a hit. Watch for it at your record shop. "The Partridges" also have something special going in the way of a very private and official magazine. It's called "Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine," and it really is official, complete with the blessings of the
