

Here's David at work, playing Keith Partridge. These pictures show him with Susan Dey, who plays his sister Laurie on the show. David and Susan have become good friends through working together, but don't you believe the rumors of romance that are going to start flying!

Next month exclusively in FLIP, Carol Deck will take you for a day on the set of "The Partridge Family," and you'll be able to see first-hand some of the hilarious happenings that are making the show such a success. You'll also be reading, in an unforgettable on-the-set interview, what David himself really thinks of the show!

