

WHAT WOULD YOU DO if you discovered that your "blind date" for the evening was David Cassidy? Would you scream? Giggle? Faint dead away?! Do you think you'd be able to keep a conversation going — or would the evening be filled with long (and embarrassing) silences? Could you do all the "little things" that insure a memorable (and meaningful) time for the two of you? It would help if you knew in advance some of David's "dating habits", wouldn't it? So — here's a little rule book filled with "David's Dating Do's & Don'ts". It's called David Cassidy's Secret Date Book— for if that marvelous magic date ever comes your way, 16 wants you to be prepared!!

David Cassidy's Secret Date Book!

DO'S

1. Do be yourself at all times! David likes girls who are real (he can't stand phonies!).
2. Do be ready when he calls for you! David hates for his dates to keep him waiting. He'll be on time — and so should you!
3. Do treat David as you would any other normal young man — and not like a celebrity! ("Celebrity hounds" turn David off!).

DON'TS

1. Don't overdress! Wear clothes you feel comfortable and at ease in. Look (and be) as natural as possible!
2. Don't suggest that David take you to a disco —cos he can't stand them! He prefers to dance somewhere with lots of room—and not too much lighting!
3. Don't be a "yes" girl! If you disagree with something David says, tell him so! David likes truthful people. Everyone has a mind of their own and should use it!

THREE SIMPLE RULES TO REMEMBER

1—Develop a taste for lobster! (David loves 'em!)

2—A smile will get you farther than a scowl with David!

3—Relax!

Oh, yes — and 4—Don't let David catch you peeking at this Secret Date Book!!
