YOU

News — Flashes — Hot Items — Gossip — Rumors — Here's the latest on your faves from Hollywood where it's all happening! If there are any special fax you'd like me to wheedle out of the stars you luv, by all means WRITE! Laudy Powell, Editor, FaVE Magazine, 1800 N. Highland Avenue, Hollywood, California 90028. I would love to hear from you!

Nothing is more fun than going to a good party, unless it's going to one for the stars we write about in FaVE every month! Away from the tension that surrounds them when they're working, everyone is much more open and relaxed.

You see, when a fave is being interviewed for a story, they're often so busy coming up with answers for the questions we are shooting at them that there's no chance to talk about anything else! What with a tape re-top of a hotel on the Sunset Strip. But all the lights of Los Angeles glowing outside were no match for the excitement inside when the stars arrived! First arrivals were Shirley with her handsome husband Jack Cassidy (now I know where David got both his looks and his charm!)

Shirley looked beautiful in her floor-length, vividly colored dress. Although there must have been nearly 100 guests, she had a warm, personal greeting for everyone, and she knew it by watching him that night!

I must admit that I happened to be standing by the door when he came in, and for just a split second I didn't recognize him! Then I realized that I've never seen David in a suit and tie before! Either he's been by the office in his super-casual jeans or I've seen him on the "Partridge" set in costume. Either way, I think he's very good-looking, and I'll bet you agree with me!

David moved slowly through the crowd, introducing his very pretty date, Judy to everyone, never leaving her side for a second! (No, she's not his steady girl—but she certainly is one of his nicest and sweetest girlfriends!)

When I asked David how he felt about all the excitement he was causing, his answer was, "Wow, I can't believe it!" That's the same comment he had when he first appeared on the cover of FaVE, come to think of it!

Then I turned around and bumped right into Susan Dey, as beautiful as DAVID HELPS his date, Judy, to some of the groovy food! He was never far from her side all evening long!

THE HAPPIEST TRIO at the party were David Cassidy, Shirley Jones, and David's proud father, Jack Cassidy. Can't miss David's resemblance to his dad!

order going, a photographer shooting pictures, being called back on the set for more filming, etc. it's a wonder we get in any casual conversation at all!

That's why I enjoyed two of the parties I went to this month so much that I'm dying to tell you about them! The first was given by Bell Records for David Cassidy and Shirley Jones to celebrate the release of their first single, "I Think I Love You" backed with "Somebody Wants to Love You."

There was a scrumptious dinner, served in a penthouse restaurant on most of the people by name. She is a truly lovely person, and she and Jack had us all feeling right at home in no time!

David arrived shortly after, and you would never have guessed from his appearance that he'd been working up until an hour before the party! He wore a blue, pin-striped suit with a wide white tie contrasting against his dark shirt and the biggest, widest grin I've ever seen! Although he told me before that big parties make him nervous, you never would have believed
