

FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES BY JOHNNY JASON

HELLO AGAIN . . . Have you heard the OSMOND BROTHERS' first single record yet? It's called "Movin' Along" and really has a great sound. MERRILL tells me that the song was written in about half an hour. One night, while they were looking at color slides of the family, MERRILL suddenly got up and went over to the piano and started hitting out a tune. Soon ALAN joined him and before you could bat your eyes the words were added. Must have been self-inspiration . . . speaking of new singles, have you heard the one by KURT RUSSELL? That's right, he's decided to become a well-rounded performer, too. The record's called "I Believe in Love." . . . JACK WILD, also, has another record out but I hopes this one does as well as "Some Beautiful" which did nicely in sales although not a chart-topper. His second one is called "Wait for Summer" . . . When the fall tv season rolls JACK WILD—another new single!

THE GROOVY PARTRIDGE Family comes your way this Fall! The singing family gets into some hilarious situations every Friday on ABC-TV at 8:30 p.m.

sible . . . MARLO THOMAS' second feature film is called "Sad Nun at Synanon." She plays a nun who leaves the convent for other things. She'll also be leaving her "That Girl" show at the end of this 5th season. Marlo says she loves the show but she must do other things now. She will return to tv in the 1972-73 season in a new series where she plays a different role
