

David: Doin' His Thing

Recently, David Cassidy made a groovy guest appearance on Dick Clark's American Bandstand. If you saw it, you know how very exciting David was. If not, you can re-live that exciting day through these exclusive Tiger Beat photos shot just for YOU! So, come along and join the fun as David performs his first single "I Think I Love You."

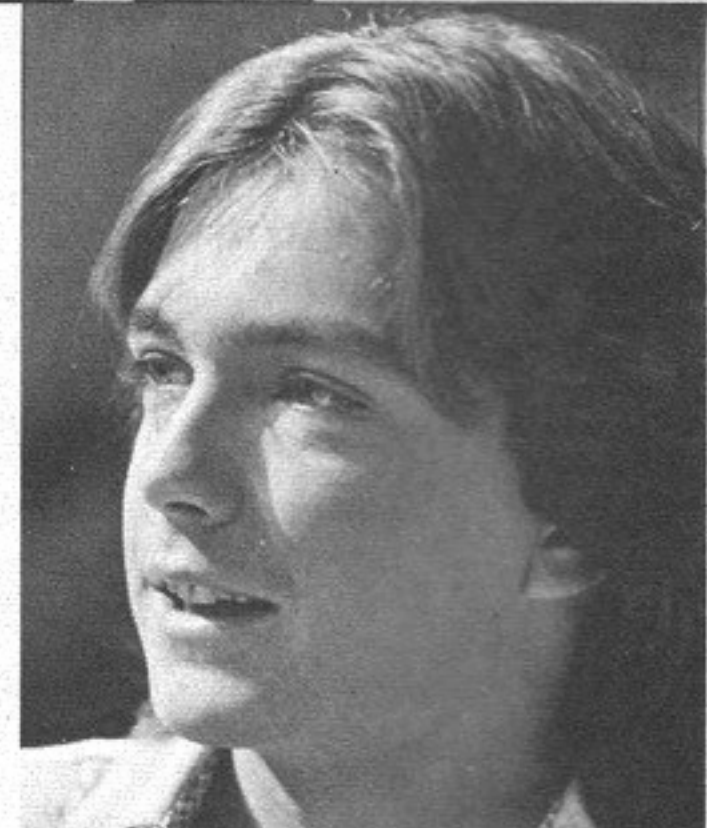

DAVID'S RECENT APPEARANCE ON "AMERICAN BANDSTAND" was especially exciting for him, since it was the first time he'd sung his new record on TV, other than "The Partridge Family," of course. He loved talking with the dancers on the show and hearing their reaction to the show and the new music. Everyone he talked to raved about their great sound!

THOUGH DAVID DISLIKES being made-up, he knows it's all part of his business, and sits patiently as the make-up man goes about his work. Because his shirt was to be open to the second button, he had to have his chest and neck made-up too! Below, David signs the necessary forms that must be filled out before he can work on the show. Activities like these fill his time before he goes on-stage to sing his number!

TIGER BEAT'S EDITOR, Ann Moses, gets one more shot of David as he's being made-up. On the table you can see David's favorite drink: 7 Up. He drinks lots of it when he's nervous!

CAN YOU DIG DAVID'S longer hair length? For awhile it was shorter, but lately he's let it grow a tiny bit longer, which he prefers. It will be this way on his new series.

DAVID AND DICK CLARK take a break from their conversation to pose for our camera in front of the ABC-TV camera. When David taped the show, they met for the first time and had many, many things to discuss.
