

David: Doin' His Thing

CONTINUED

IN HIS DRESSING ROOM, David discusses what his part will be in the show with the director. They must map out where he will walk and whether or not he'll use a hand microphone. Ever-ready is his "security" Uncola.

WHENEVER HE DOES a show other than "The Partridge Family," you'll see David in his own clothes, so you can see what his wardrobe is like. David's favorite clothes are jeans and tee shirts, he likes casualness!

ON THE AIR, Dick Clark interviews David for the viewing audience asking him about the new show and his role on the series. David does a great interview and is quick to answer any questions put to him.

DURING THE INTERVIEW Dick and David also talked about his first record, "I Think I Love You." David has been spending a great deal of time in the recording studios lately, putting together "The Partridge Family's" first album. Because David is the lead singer, he must be there for almost every session. This means a great deal of work!

FOR THE "BANDSTAND" SHOW, DAVID BROUGHT ALONG a brief film clip of "The Partridge Family" series, which hadn't been seen when "Bandstand" aired. It previewed the program and showed some of the more comical highlights as you can see from David's expression! Everyone flipped for the show, even though they only saw a brief portion of it!

DAVID GOT A KICK out of seeing the film clips, as they were taken from the series pilot, which he hadn't seen for several months. Normally, he doesn't like watching himself on TV, but this time he dug it!
