The nicest thing about having contests in FaVE is when the grand prize is a trip to Hollywood, because then we get to meet the winners! FaVE's "Fly to Hollywood" contest brought three lucky girls out here, and we all had the time of our lives!

Peggy Dagucon, 13, Debbie Dewey, 15 and Linda Mazgaj, 12 swear they'll never be the same again! They loved seeing famous places like Disneyland, the Hollywood Wax Museum, Grauman's Chinese Theatre, the groovy California beaches, etc. etc. but the stand-out event for them was meeting their favorite stars.

One dreamy afternoon was spent at the Columbia Ranch, watching "The Partridge Family" filming. They all fell in love with David Cassidy, who took them on the "Partridge" bus and had a long chat with them. Although the shooting was running late, David (wearing a cranberry colored velvet pants and vest outfit that's bound to start a new fashion) acted as if he had all the time in the world!

Yet he was at the hotel bright and early, full of smiles and enthusiasm.

Bobby looked great in his blue and pink flowered shirt, jeans and another new brown suede vest (he must have 100 of them)! He was full of lots of exciting news—"Hey Mr. Sun" had

DO YOU LIKE Bobby's new Porsche? He still has his Rolls, but says it's easier to get around in a smaller car.

RICK ELY can sing as well as act! The star of "The Young Rebels" has just signed a recording contract.

Bridget is such a warm, friendly person that she had all the girls chattering away as if they'd known each other for years. When it was time to
