

You'd better get your homework done early when school starts, because the fall TV season is bursting with exciting new series and stars! Here's a sneak peek at some of the groovy shows coming up!

TV PREVIEW: NEW SHOWS

THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY—ABC, Fridays. You already know two members of this musical family—David Cassidy and Shirley Jones. Others left to right: Dante Bonaduce, Susan Dey, Suzanne Crough and Jeremy Gelbwaks. A widow and her children make music scene!

THE YOUNG REBELS—ABC, Sundays. Rick Ely and Hilarie Thompson co-star in this adventure series set during the Revolutionary War. There's lots of excitement as their secret group fights the King!

THE BUGALOOS—NBC, Saturdays. Music and fantasy are combined as these rock musicians, looking much like friendly butterflies, dedicate their lives to helping people. They are, left to right: John Philpott, Caroline Ellis, Wayne Laryea and John McIndoe.

NANCY—NBC, Thursdays. There's an endless supply of comedy in this half-hour series about a young veterinarian's wife who also is the daughter of the President! Stars Renne Jarrett and John Fink.