

Every new star has secret fears about his career. David Cassidy is about to become a super-star. FLIP's Carol Deck has spent a great deal of time with David during these important months, and she knows what's going through his head. In an open, personal letter to David, Carol tells him . . .

“Don’t be afraid, David!”

