

Visiting DAVID CASSIDY'S dressing room on the set of "The Partridge Family" is like an amusement park all in itself! Against one wall there is a sofa-type bed that can be used to sleep on or sit on and directly across the room are three full-length mirrors. So when you're sitting on the sofa with David, you find yourself looking at each other in the mirrors to talk! It's really crazy!

Under the bed is a whole stereo system with speakers in different parts of the room. The last time I was on the set, DAVID was so excited about the group's first album, he had to play it for me. Well, let me tell you, you won't believe what a beautiful sound this group has! It won't be long, though, before the album will be released!

BOBBY SHERMAN received a beautiful gift recently from a fan in Chelsea, Massachusetts. She sent him her grandfather's ring. BOBBY was so moved, he wrote back to DONNA saying... "I wanted to take a moment to write and thank you for your beautiful letter and the antique ring you sent to me... I'm sure you know, DONNA, that the thing that makes antiques valuable is not so much what they cost as what they mean... the sentiment attached to them because of who they have belonged to and how they are given. Your grandfather's ring represents his fondness and affection for you; and while I am touched at your wanting me to have the ring, I

ONE WALL OF DAVID'S DRESSING ROOM is all mirrors, and the other walls are done in dark paneling. Here David relaxes on the sofa-bed.
