land Avenue, Hollywood, California 90028. I would love to hear from you!

The audience was a sea of outstretched hands giving the peace sign, and the message was LOVE! It was a Saturday night at the Los Angeles Forum and 14,000 fans had come to see their fave Bobby Sherman! They weren't disappointed, because he gave the performance of his life!

It's hard to explain the feeling in the air unless you've been to one of Bobby's concerts! None of them is quite the same, and each time it seems like the excitement grows more intense! The audience was enthusiastic about the acts preceding Bobby—Instant Joy (the group that later backed Bobby) and The Jebb were fabulous!
Then there was a 20-minute intermission and the tension started to really grow!

Bobby's parents came out from backstage and took their seats, smiling and waving happily. Then the emcee, Sam Riddle came on and everyone knew the moment they had been waiting for had arrived! There was one split second when there wasn't any sound at all, while Sam said, "Here's Bobby!" and then the screaming began!

All the lights went out, and heads turned expectantly to the door by the side of the stage where Bobby's folks had just emerged... but suddenly a huge spotlight picked up a group running in from the side entrance. In the middle was Bobby, smiling, hair flying behind him. The pitch of sound increased, girls were standing on their chairs—Bobby had arrived!

He jumped lightly up on the stage and grabbed the mike, and everyone went absolutely wild! Some of the girls were actually crying with happiness, and it's easy to understand. In the history of show business, moments like this between a star and those who love him are very few, and the magic is contagious!

Bobby wore black and white striped leather pants and a black shirt with fringed sleeves. He also had a white tie on, but halfway through the show he took it off and tossed it into the audience!

The thing that never fails to amaze me about him is that he's able, seemingly without effort, to get his true personality across and right into the hearts of his fans. I'm lucky enough to know Bobby, and I can honestly say that there's nothing phony about him. Watching him perform that night,

THOSE BEAUTIFUL eyelashes of Susan Dey's are all her own! This lucky girl's never needed fake ones!
