MARK and MELINDA SLADE were there, as was PETER TORK, and of course, DAVID, LINDA and TALIA. If you're planning a trip to Hollywood, along with SAM'S "One of a Kind" in North Hollywood, be sure to stop by DAVID'S "The Street" for I'm sure before long, more stalls will be filled and there will be much more activity. I hope so, for it's an ingenious plan!

winner yet! Would you believe she still gets excited and nervous about meeting her faves! She's met lots of her favorite actors and actresses, but she's still dying to meet FLIP WILSON and JACK BENNY. I've mentioned to you before that KAREN is an avid antique collector, that she and her husband MAC buy things one at a time as they find them in groovy shops, but still her most prized possession is "my simple gold wedding ring, because of all it represents." Frank Webb & Ann

Hope you caught the re-run of FRANK WEBB on "Marcus Welby, M.D." in July. FRANK did a fantastic job, as he always does. He'd done a lot of thinking lately about trying his hand at recording, but he thought it would be interesting to see how his fans felt about it. If you'd like to hear FRANK

Meanwhile, DAVE is leading a double life—besides his record work, DAVE is a full-time student at The Central School of Speech and Drama. His acting courses will take three years, and he's already in his third term, this year concentrating on Shakespeare. DAVE is pictured here with a bit of a beard, but he has recently shaved it off.

It's too bad you all couldn't have been in Hollywood for THREE DOG NIGHT'S fabulous concert at the
