

WAVES & HANDSHAKES

David greeted the crowd by flashing a peace sign as well as that beautiful smile of his, and he was really knocked out by the overwhelming response. Can you imagine the feeling of waving and then seeing endless thousands of hands wave back at you?! Well, that's just what happened to David, Susan and Danny — and it's a feeling they'll never forget!

Even though the fire engine had to keep moving, David was especially happy that along the way he got to say "hello" in person to many of his fans. Of course, he couldn't stop and have a long conversation with anyone, but it was a special feeling to at least be able to look directly into their eyes and answer some of their questions. David, Susan and Danny also got to shake a lot of hands, and they even got to read some of the letters that were passed up to them on the fire truck. Would you believe — they even received some gifts?! Yup — they did! But it was a bit frightening when some over-anxious fans — who couldn't wait to hand a present to their fav — tossed gifts up and hit darlin' David right in the head. And that's when everything started to get a little too hectic!

Instead of standing in line, the crowd broke loose and started running toward the fire engine. Remember now, there were thousands of young people (they meant well, but were terribly excited) and those in charge of the parade were worried that someone might accidentally get hurt. Luckily, by now it was the end of the parade. David didn't really want to leave, but he understood the problem — and even though he, Susan and Danny might be safe, he was afraid someone in the crowd might get injured.

STILL THE FANS COME!

The next stop was the May Company and when David, Susan and Danny arrived — they were again amazed! There were so many kids waiting for them that they actually couldn't get through the crowd and into the store. So the people in charge decided that it was best to cancel the reception and head for Radio Station WIXY — the next stop on the schedule for David, Susan and Danny. Well, would you believe the same thing happened at the radio station? Once again, our trio of super stars found countless thousands of enthusiastic PF fans waiting to greet them! And once again—the people in charge decided that it was safer to cancel this stop too!

Now — the next stop (which was the final one) was the airport, where David, Susan and Danny would board a plane for home. And for the first time that day, things worked out right. Because they were ahead of schedule, no one was at the airport and no sooner did they take their seats than the three of them fell fast asleep! It had been an extraordinary, exhausting but wonderful day! David enjoyed this fabulous on-the-road experience so very much he can't wait to do more travelling and visit more cities! What David really wants to do is a summer concert tour! So keep your eyes and ears wide open, cos David Cassidy may be coming your way — sooner than you ever dreamed!!

Danny finds time to read some of the fan letters passed up to him. He, Susan and David took the notes home with them!

David almost vanished again — this time right into the crowd! This pic was snapped just before the parade ended!
