

IT'S WHAT'S HAPPENING

If the Bugaloos flew past you the first time around, they'll be coming in for a few more landings.

SELBY, and the rest of the Dark Shadows stars are plans for more movies based on the series. The first, MGM's House of Dark Shadows, was such a hit that it broke attendance records in many of the cities where it played.

Hollywood tragedy! The town was shocked at the terrible accident BRIAN KELLEY suffered, just a few days after he was announced as the star for the upcoming picture version of The Love Machine.

Brian, you'll remember, was the star of Flipper a few years ago, and he managed to beat out some stiff competition (just about every actor in Hollywood!) for the Love Machine lead.

Just before production was to start, Brian decided to take his David Selby and company will do more movie gigs for the Dark Shadows series.

Peggy Lipton won't whisper a word to anyone about her love life, but that ring on her finger is shouting.

first motorcycle ride, and he suffered a spill. For almost two days, he was in danger—and in a coma. At last Brian came out of it, but the multiple injuries he received will force him to give up his prized movie role.

Producer MIKE FRANKOVICH has promised, though, that once Brian recovers, he'll get the first available leading role Mike has to offer. Up as possibilities to replace Brian in the film are LYLE WAGGONER and ROBERT BROWN.

MAUDE ADAMS, top model, is also in the flick.

Another unfortunate incident—the problems Partridge Family star SHIRLEY JONES is having with her husband, JACK CASSIDY. Shirley and Jack announced a separation, and DAVID CASSIDY was upset about his parent's troubles. At the last minute, though, Jack patched it up, and now things look better at home.

BARBARA PARKINS will soon be seen in a new flick—The Mephisto Waltz. Barb intends to stay in London, and has no plans of making a return move to the USA. She's dating PARTICK LITCHFIELD, an English Lord, and Barb just may end up being a lady!

THE THREE DEGREES are the new hot group to watch. Besides being talented singers, the girls are also good mimicks, and do a fabulous take off on The SUPREMES.