

The Winners!

FAVORITE NEWSHOWN

You Picked them!

You've done it again—picked the new television programs that are almost certain to have long lives on the tube. And, as always, these have been personal selections, choices made known to this magazine long before the networks admitted publicly which were their “strong” shows and which were doomed to fade fast. If CBS, NBC and ABC had but thought to ask you first, think of the grief and expense they might have been saved!

Perhaps your record of picking winners and losers should be pointed out to the networks. This is the sixth consecutive year that we have conducted a “Favorite (Continued on page 79)
