

MINUTE BY MINUTE WITH DAVID!

Have you ever had one day when you had so much happiness come your way you felt it was enough to last you the rest of your life? Well, prepare yourself now for the dream of a life-time as you spend an entire day with David, minute by minute!

6:30 am: With the sound of the alarm clock in his ear, David sleepily blinks open his eyes to greet the morning with a groan. Getting up is very hard for him!

6:31 am: Trying to keep his eyes open David reaches over to turn off the alarm, then lies down again on the pillow.

6:32-6:35 am: David's asleep again! Usually he never hears the alarm go off at 6.30! He just sleeps right through it!

6:36 am: David's answering service rings the red telephone he keeps by the side of his bed. Instantly his eyes open and he glances at the clock, thinking he'd better get up. The phone stops ringing.

6:37-6:41 am: Back asleep. David just can't seem to get up today. Luckily the answering service rings every 5 minutes until he does, otherwise he'd be late for work!

6:42 am: The telephone rings once more and this time David quickly rises out of bed so he won't fall asleep again!

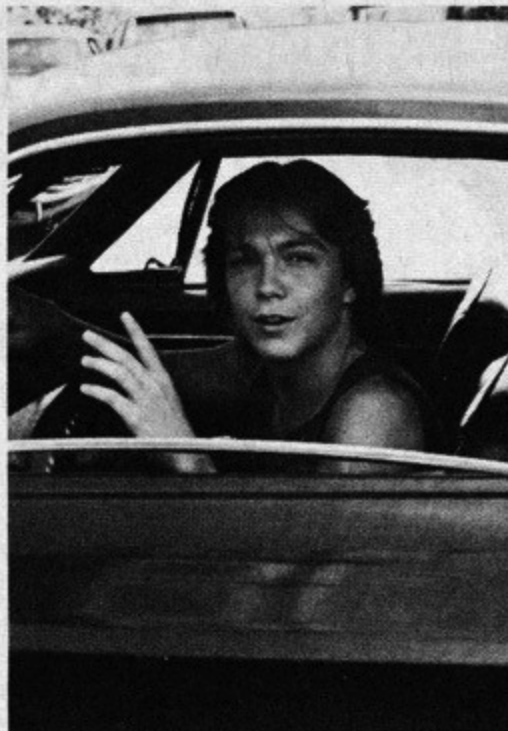

6:43 am: David takes a look at himself in the bathroom mirror and shrugs his shoulders. He reaches over to turn on the shower water.

6:44-6:53 am: David showers and washes his hair. He washes it every morning in the shower so that it looks clean and shiny every day.

6:54 am: David steps from the shower and dries himself off in a big fluffy towel.

6:55-7:09 am: David dries his hair with a hand blower.

7:10 am: His hair clean and dry, David goes over to his closet to dress for the day.

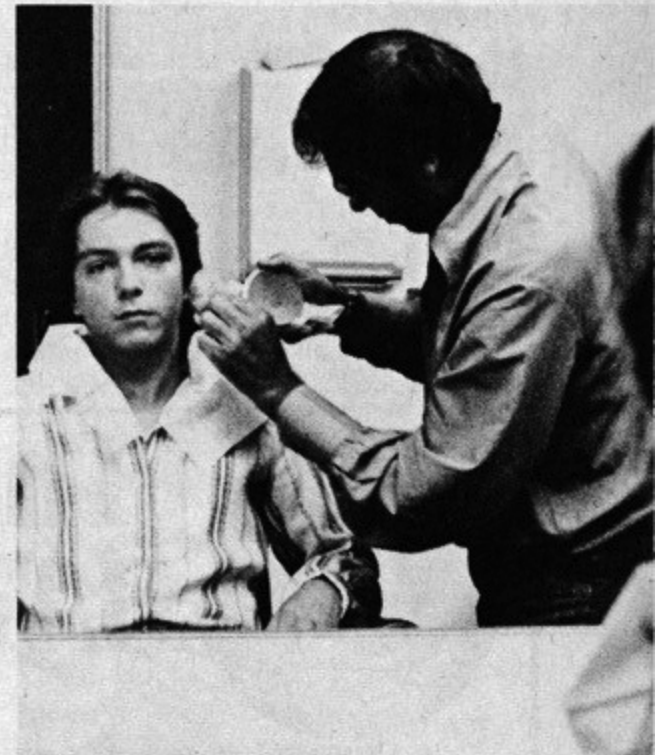

7:11-7:15 am: David puts on a groovy flower-print shirt and Levis and his socks and boots.

7:16 am: He's on his way upstairs to have a quick bite for breakfast!

7:17 am: Sam and Sheesh, David's two dogs, greet him at the top of the stairs. They want breakfast too!

7:18-7:23 am: David fixes breakfast for his two pets and pours himself a glass of milk.

7:24-7:30 am: David sits down at the table in the living room with his milk and eats a powdered-sugar doughnut. He likes to sit and watch the early morning birds in the trees from the big picture window.

7:31-7:33 am: David brushes his teeth.

7:34-7:36 am: He puts on his jacket, says goodbye to his dogs and gets into his car.

7:37-7:55 am: David's on the road to work, caught up here and there in traffic on the Hollywood freeway!

7:56 am: David drives onto the Columbia Ranch lot, waving at the guard in the booth.

7:57-7:58 am: David parks his mustang outside his dressing room and crosses the road to the make-up department.

7:59 am: David sits down in the make-up man's chair with 1 minute to spare!

8:00-8:15 am: David has make-up applied.
