

DAVID CASSIDY: "What I Love About You!"

It's easy to go on for hours about what makes David Cassidy so special — but let's turn the tables for a minute! What does HE really dig about YOU? Read on, and see if you are the type of girl that your favorite fave would do flips for!

I LOVE: Super-shiny hair, whether it's long, short or just in-between! The kind of hair that makes me want to reach out and touch it because it looks so silky!

I LOVE: A well-scrubbed look—the kind of look a girl has when she likes her looks the way they are, without piling on tons of makeup! (I do have a weakness for long eyelashes, though, and I don't mind if a girl helps nature along a bit as long as she doesn't tell me!)

I LOVE: Her clothes to look like she's wearing them, not vice versa! Hmmm... maybe I'd better explain that! Okay, say this girl is coming by right now, in a high-fashion midi, high boots, velvet choker, laced belt, etc., etc. I'd look at her outfit, because she overdid the style bit until it overpowered her! I don't like too many gimmicks because she's letting her clothes become more important than her personality! And speaking of the midi...

I LOVE: Pretty legs! I can't help it, it's the truth! I think a soft, swishy, pretty dress that touches the floor is feminine to wear once in awhile, but short skirts always rate a first look with me!

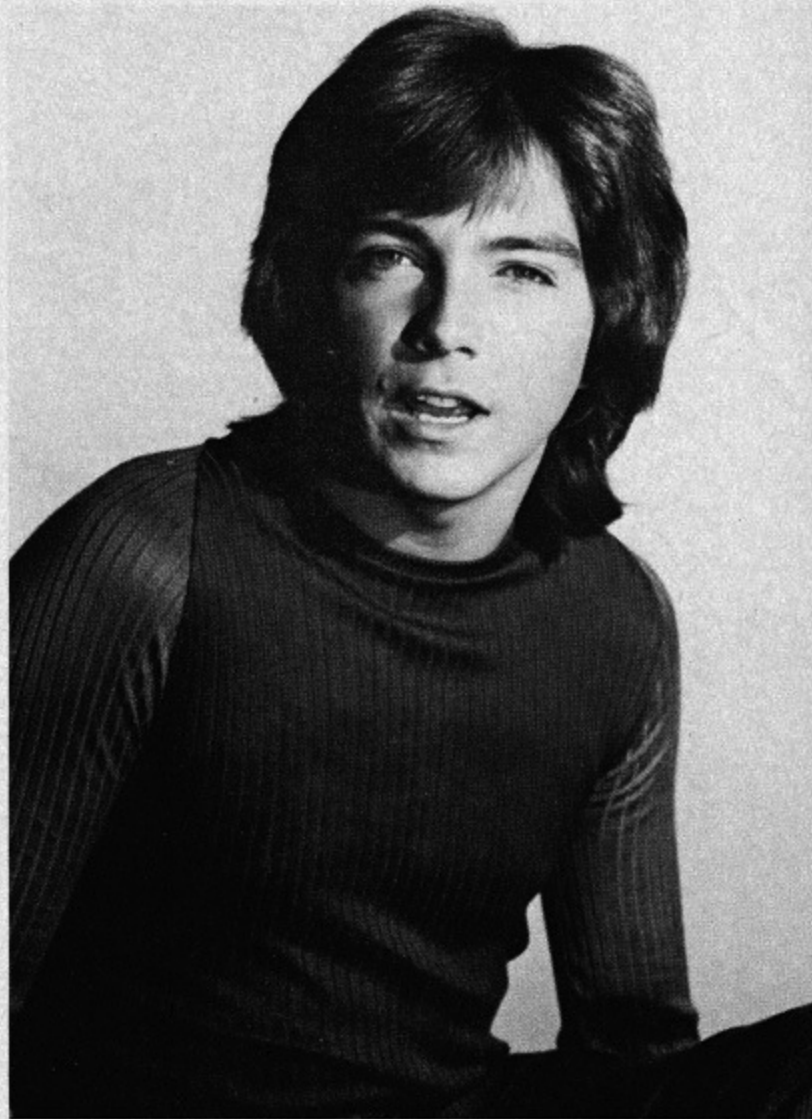

I LOVE: A girl to use a lightly-scented perfume that reminds me of her when she's not around! Not too much of a strong kind that makes me want to run and open a window—just a little touch! I especially love the ones that smell like flowers.

I LOVE: A happy outlook on life that would never allow me to stay in a blue mood when I'm with her. A girl who can find something good in almost everyone and everything is a joy to be with!

I LOVE: To be greeted with a big, wide smile that says, "Hey, you're really pretty special!" You know, the kind of smile that warms you right down to your toes!

I LOVE: Just a bit of shyness sometimes. Not that she would be scared to open her mouth in a crowd of people, but she'd lean on me just a little to make me love taking care of her!

I LOVE: The fact that she knows how to think! That she has got her own beliefs about things whether I agree with them or not, and she'll stand up for them! I don't know why so many girls think it's not feminine to have a good mind and use it! There's nothing like good conversation to keep a guy interested!

I LOVE: The quiet moments we'd share together too, where neither of us feel we have to fill up the air with words.

I LOVE: A sense of humor! Wouldn't life be dull if there never was a moment when you could laugh about nothing at all?

I LOVE: A girl who loves all animals the way I do! She especially would love my favorite small creature of all, Sam my dog, of course!

I LOVE: The way she feels about life in general! She wants to live it to the fullest and enjoy every taste of happiness (and even sadness) because there's nothing more wonderful than being alive and being in love... with me!
