

BOBBY AND DAVID CONTINUED

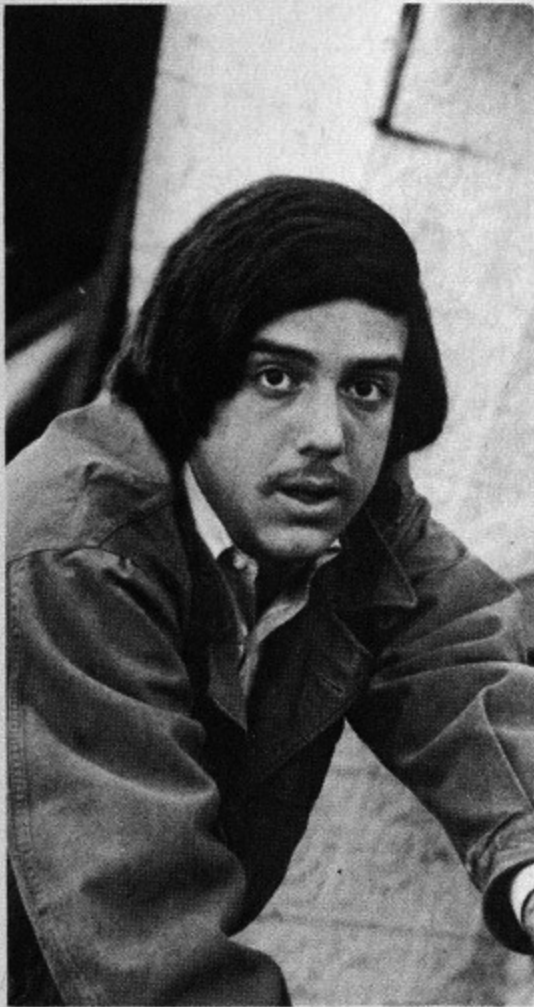

It all started one afternoon when Bobby dropped by the Tiger Beat Offices to inform us that he may be having his own television series starting in the Fall! Plans weren't definite yet because everything hinged on the pilot program and that was the biggest and best surprise of all!

Why? Because the pilot program would be filmed right along with "The Partridge Family!" One entire show of this season will actually be Bobby's pilot and will run one glorious hour of Bobby and David!

BIG SECRET

The story was kept a big secret until filming started, and then Tiger Beat was let in on all the details to share with you!

In the pilot, Bobby's name is Bobby Conway and he plays the role of a young aspiring song-writer. One evening, very late, the Partridge family is awakened by what they think is a burglar in the garage!

Keith, Shirley, and the other Partridges hurry out to catch him but whom should they find in the garage, but a very nice young man playing Laurie's organ with a portable tape recorder playing beautiful music along!

Of course the Partridges wonder what he's doing out there, and Bobby
