

BOBBY & DAVID TOGETHER ON T.V.!

"Did you know that David and I both had parts on the 'FBI' TV show? Of course we weren't on the same episode."

"At first I wasn't sure how Bobby and I would get along. But he was great to work with and made everyone feel at ease."

"I was only 14 when I first saw Bobby on 'Shindig.' I already knew back then that I wanted to be an actor."

"David was pretty quiet early in the week. But as the days passed he got friendlier. The whole cast was great to me."

WES STERN, in armor suit, plays Bobby's songwriting buddy on the show. If the pilot film sells (and we're sure it will), Bobby and Wes will be seen every Friday night on ABC-TV right after "The Partridge Family." Wes told us he's keeping his fingers crossed 'cause he'd love to do the show with Bobby. Incidentally, Wes also knew David several years ago in New York when David appeared in the Broadway show, "The Lig Leaves Are Falling." All three are friends!
