

Tiger Beat Q & A

Q. I heard that the Archies are just a group of different people playing under that name, but are not a regular singing group. I also heard that Tommy Roe sang their hit "Sugar Sugar" under the name Archies. Please tell me what's going on!

A. The Archies were composed of several studio musicians and session singers led by talented Ron Dante, and it is his voice, not Tommy Roe's, that is featured on "Sugar Sugar." Ron was also the voice for the Cuff Links' "Tracy" and several commercials for soft drinks, airlines, and gasoline.

Q. Where can I write to Cory Wells? I love him to death!

A. Write to Cory or any of the other Three Dog Night members at 6515 Sunset Bl., Suite 202, Hollywood, Ca. 90028.

Q. I noticed that David Cassidy always wears a ring on his left little finger and it has a blue stone in it. I was wondering if this is his birthstone and when is his birthday?

A. David's birthday is April 12, and the birthstone for the month of April is the diamond. But David explains that the blue stone ring was passed on from his father and it's one of his favorites, and someday he'll pass it on to his son.
