

ABOVE: David loves playing his stereo so loud, he had to get a home far from other neighbors—to make sure no one would complain about the noise! BELOW: David's two pooches eavesdrop while he's on the phone.

There are no frills around this house. David has furnished the whole place in very typical young bachelor fashion.

"It couldn't be," the mother said. "In old jeans? What would he be doing out here camping? And not even in a tent! That's not how those people travel, Susie. Don't be silly."

The boy felt a nice, warm, peaceful glow—because after becoming an instant star on ABC's The Partridge Family . . . his first album (with step-mom and co-star Shirley Jones) going great . . . his own first single I Think I Love You really hot . . . his picture all over the magazines . . . girls stopping him in the super-market for autographs, and (Please turn to page 61)

Double-dating is fun—when your date is pretty Lynn Dubian, and the other couple is your dad, Jack Cassidy, and step-mom, Shirley Jones.
