The Partridge Family • The Partridge Family The Partridge Fami THE PARTRIDGES sang the popular tune "Point artridge Family . The Partridge Fami Me In The Direction of Albuquerque" in this episode. It was about a teenage runaway who invents wild tales to impress people. Laurie Prange guested as Maggie and Sandy Kenyon as her dad. It ended nicely with Maggie being reunited with her dad. Laurie loved working with the Partridge stars and they loved working with her. The show was run on February 26, 1971. It was a touching story! he Partridge Family BIG BROTHERS often take THE PURCHASE OF a used care of their sisters, but in car gives Keith his first taste "Not With My Sister, You of financial responsibility Don't," even Laurie's little and a bitter pill it is for brother Danny steps in. It's him to swallow! Why? His all to protect her with very expenses keep mounting and elaborate precautions, from mounting and his allowance a guy known around campus isn't enough to cover it. as a regular wolf! As it turns He decides to borrow it out, the guy's very nice from the family but no one when he dates Laurie the wants to lend it! He alfirst time and Keith and ready owes them from pre-Danny's night long watch vious borrowings! Danny deproved unnecessary. When cides Keith needs a finan-Laurie finds out what her cial manager and Keith brothers are up to, she reis cornered into letting Danfuses to speak to them! The ny do it! The song - "You song for this segment, was Are Always On My Mind." "I'll Meet You Halfway." CONVINCED THAT he was adopted, Danny Partridge sets out on a journey around town to find his real parents. "Doesn't Somebody The Partridge Fam Want to Be Wanted," was the song and the show was run on March 12, 1971. BOBBY SHERMAN guested as a rock composer in search of a lyricist. The Partridges decide to help him and suggest Lionel Poindexter, played by Wes Stern. It was a great year with Partridges—another is waiting! · The Partridge Family · The Partridge Family ·