

21

THERE WERE SO MANY gifts David needed assistants to help—like his roommates and Tiger Beat's Ann Moses. These knitted vests were from JoAnn Giannotlo. David loved the homemade guitar Ann's holding. He kept saying, "I just can't believe this is happening!"

All birthdays are special, but a 21st birthday is extra-special! That's why David wanted to share this happy day with you. So, come along as the editors of the Laufer Company magazines throw a surprise 21st birthday party for David!

IT WASN'T LONG BEFORE FaVE's Laudy Powell and Official Partridge Magazine's Sharon Lee had to lend a hand. Everyone had fun!

DAVID'S GIFT FROM the Laufer Company was this huge framed picture of himself from his first concert in Seattle. He hung it in his den!

DAVID LOVED EVERY single thing he got. This scrapbook from Nancy Russell was so great David took almost half an hour to look through it! He also got a great afghan from Eileen Fry, a calendar plaque from Carol Hansen, a partridge soap from Donna, a vase from Marsha Vozza, a gum chain from Sylvia Maring, champagne from L. Morillas and so much more it would fill up this book!

CONTINUED ON PAGE 51

21