

Dear David,

I think you're so cute. As a matter of fact I think you're the cutest boy I've ever seen! Can you tell me if you have a roommate?

Ann Lompert
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Ann,

Thanks for the compliment, and for the picture of yourself. I used to have one roommate named Sam—but now I've got another roomy. Of course Sam's still with us—now it's the three of us in that big house! My new friend's name is Steve Ross and he's a musician in the back-up group that goes with me on concert tours.

Dear David,

In the May issue of Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine there is a story on Danny, Jeremy, Susan, Dave, Suzanne and Shirley—all about their favorite things! But, they didn't have yours in there! Why?

Vicki Woolly

Dear Vicki,

The reason my favorite things weren't in the May issue of TBOPF Magazine is because they were in another magazine—Tiger Beat Spectacular! If you missed that issue—February, 1971, just turn to page 53!

Dear David,

I think you are super terrific! I just love the Partridge Family. I want to know how you feel when people say awful things about you that aren't true.

Jane Zipay
Bayonne, N.J.

Dear Jane,

I'm glad you enjoy the Partridge Family and thanks for letting me know. Yes, I do get terribly upset when people print things about me that aren't true because I can't go to each person who reads that specific story and tell them it isn't true! Naturally most people believe what they see in print. I've stopped reading most of the things people have written about me in various magazines because I'd rather not be hurt. At least this way I don't know what they said about me. That's why I like having my "own" magazine—Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine really is a magazine we Partridges can depend on—it's the simple truth! Tiger Beat, FaVE and Tiger Beat Spectacular are that way too—if it's printed there—you can believe it!

Dear David,

Do you get chased by girls when you go outside and they see you? By the way—do girls get nervous when they see you?

Jocelyn Coiner
Coronado, Cal.

Dear Jocelyn,

Once in a while I do get chased by girls, but it's usually only when they're in groups! Mostly when girls spot me—it's one or two girls, and then they come over and we have a nice talk. It's only when 10 or more girls get together that they chase anyone—not just me. And, girls usually don't go around in such large groups! I've never asked a girl if I made her nervous, but Jocelyn, sometimes girls make me nervous! I mean, girls like you who are really wonderful—they make me nervous in a very nice sort of way!

FOR SHIRLEY:

Dear Shirley,

I know this is a personal question and you don't have to answer it if you don't want to. How did you meet David Cassidy's father?

Vicki Woolly
Detroit, Michigan

Dear Vicki,

Of course I don't mind talking about it to you. Jack and I met when we were both in the European company production of "Oklahoma." We've been married now for 14 wonderful years!

Dear Shirley,

I read somewhere that you've really got a temper. Is this true? Oh, I love your television show!

Debbi Dear
Manhattan, N.Y.

Dear Debbi,

You know, I love the program too! My mother used to tell me that when I was a child I was really one for trying temper tantrums. Of course I don't go into tantrums now, but I guess you could say I've got a temper—it smolders. I don't enjoy getting angry—I hate it. I think it's childlike and ridiculous and this is what's wrong with the world—fighting. If people would talk person to person we wouldn't have wars. I really try to keep my temper in check, though a good argument can sometimes be helpful—you know—clear the air!

Dear Shirley,

Do you wear a wig on "The Partridge Family?"

Betsy Piture
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Betsy,

Heavens no! That's my own head of hair you see on the television screen!

FOR DANNY:

Dear Danny,

I read somewhere that you really play the guitar and that you taught yourself. Is this true? I've just been wondering because I've read so
