

PATRIDGE FAMILY SECRETS CONTINUED

Q. Do the Partridge kids' mothers come on the set with them all the time?

A. By law, an actor under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian with him on the set at all times. This can mean a friend, or relative, not just a mother or father. Usually the PF youngsters do have their moms with them, though! Here Jeremy and his mom Sydney Gelbwaks sit together during a break in filming.

Q. Did Susan and David see each other a lot during their break in filming this spring?

A. No, in fact, the only time they saw each other was when the Bonaduces gave Susan a going home party and they invited Dave Madden and David Cassidy. Susan spent her "vacation" with her family in New York, catching up on family fun times and modeling a bit in between!

Q. Did David's roommate Sam go on his first concert tour with him?

A. Yes, Sam went along and he loved every minute of it. David spent most of his free time with Sam and Steve Ross, one of the musicians with the back-up group who is now his second roommate and a great friend!
