

BROOKS HUNNICUTT is the beautiful long-haired girl who sings with David's back-up group. She does a few numbers herself, too, and the crowd goes wild! She sings great! Brooks has agreed to give YOU some inside facts on what touring with David is like in our next issue!

THE SHOW AT EDGEWATER Park in Detroit was outdoors and David did a terrific job. Maybe too terrific because with the combination of the hot sun, huge crowd and the excitement of David, there were dozens of girls who fainted! The police had to rescue them and David was scared someone would get hurt.

DAVID'S FRIEND and roommate Steve Ross plays guitar for the group and is he ever fantastic. David and the others call Steve "Cookie." Joe Roccisano, on the left, plays with the group too! Part of the reason I had such fun on the tour was because David's back-up musicians are warm and wonderful people.

BELOW: IN CANTON, OHIO, David signed autographs and then had a very narrow escape! Fans started pressing around him and all his friends had to form a protective circle about him and walk him to the limousine. David wanted to stay and talk to everyone, but for his own safety he wasn't allowed to!

BELOW: KIM AND DAVE ELLINGSON sing back-up for David along with Brooks. The guys in the back-up group all wear groovy matching brown outfits and Kim and Brooks wear lavender knit pants and tops. I got to watch the shows from a great place, on stage—but of course I had to take pictures as well!

DURING THE PLANE ride from Detroit to Canton, a very tired David borrowed my shoulder for a pillow! The entire trip everyone is constantly on the go, but no one more than David! He hardly has time to sleep, but he loves it, says to you, "I wouldn't trade it for anything. Thanks so very much!"
