I hope you all appreciate me. Last week I sprained my ankle at the beach, but sprain, pain, crutches and all, I hobbled over to ABC-TV's taping of "Juvenile Jury," with special guest stars DANNY BONADUCE, MAUREEN McCORMICK—and LASSIE.

Danny, Mom and I arrived at the studio, and were escorted to the make-up room, where we were promptly introduced to Maureen and Lassie. (Small world. Although we are a few grades apart, Maureen and I once attended the same school, and have many friends in common. I had never met Lassie before. Well, there's a first time for everything. Lassie gave me a special greeting to pass on to all Partridge Fans: Arf.)

Danny fell in love with the beautiful collie, naturally, but unfortunately Lassie had just been combed and no one was allowed to touch her before she made her appearance.

The format of the "Juvenile Jury" program is for the jury (five young children) to ask questions of the guests. I couldn't help but wonder what kind of questions you could ask a dog. Actually, the kids aimed their queries at the trainer.

Lassie was a hard act to follow, considering that she jumped over two of the kids, crawled under a chair, and played dead. But Danny and Maureen went on, and I am very happy to say that they were both just as charming as Lassie—and they didn't even have to do one trick!

One of the first questions asked was, "What problems do you have, now that you're both top TV stars?"

Maureen said that getting up in the morning to reach the studio on time was the hardest thing. Danny's problem was a little tougher. He said he had trouble staying out of fights with boys on his return to public school.

After the show was over, Danny and Maureen returned to the make-up room, where Mrs. McCormick, Mom and I had watched the taping on a monitor.

Now for the dramatic highlight of the day! An epic scene, starring Danny Bonaduce, Maureen McCormick, with special guest star, the sprained ankle of your reporter.

POOR ME!

As we were leaving the studio, we had to descend a flight of steps. Have you ever tried to get crutches down steps? I tried to get crutches down steps. I failed. Miserably. I wound up in an aching heap at the bottom of the steps. Danny and Maureen came racing down to help me back on my feet. Here was Danny's big chance to say something like, "She's not heavy, she's my sister." But he didn't. What he did say was, "Boy, you're clumsy, Celia." Anyway, nothing was broken, so Maureen and the Bonaduces parted company.

I was too sore to sit at a typewriter for some time, so this column was delayed a day or two. I just hope you appreciate the effort!
