

"HOW WELL DO YOU KNOW ME?"

Isn't it funny how well you can feel that you know someone, even if you've never met him?

If you're a David Cassidy fan you probably think you know all about him. Well, here's a little quiz to help you find out just how well you know him.

1. If you met David on the street somewhere and you called him "Dave" he would probably:
  - A. Get very mad at you and walk away.
  - B. Be very polite, but ask you to call him "David."
  - C. Not mention it at all.
2. If David was in a store buying some groceries and you saw him and walked up and asked for an autograph, he would probably:
  - A. Gladly give you an autograph, chat with you for a few minutes, then go back to shopping.
  - B. Ignore you altogether.
  - C. Stop what he was doing and spend the rest of the day with you.
3. If David asked you out and on your first date he took you to a fancy restaurant and you spilled soup in your lap, he would very likely:
  - A. Laugh at you and say what a fool you are.
  - B. Get mad at you for being so clumsy and never take you out again.
  - C. Help you clean it up and tell you not to be so embarrassed because everyone does something clumsy every now and then.
4. If you had gone out with David a few times and then heard a rumor that he was going steady with another girl, you could most impress David if you:
  - A. Just ignored the rumor and figured it wasn't true.
  - B. Figured it was true and got mad at him.
  - C. Asked him quietly about it and then accepted whatever he told you.
5. If you were very religious and tried to convert David to your religion, he would probably react by:
  - A. Telling you that religion was nice for you, but that he's not too interested—but he'd still be your friend.
  - B. Trying to talk you out of your religion.
  - C. Converting to your religion.
6. If David had asked you to go on a picnic with him, but on the day of the date it was raining, he would probably:
  - A. Just cancel the date.
  - B. Ask another girl to go to a movie with him instead.
  - C. Have the picnic anyway—in his living-room in front of the fireplace.
7. If you were really into astrology and gave David an astrology chart that predicted the rest of his life, he would:
  - A. Throw it away.
  - B. Accept it and thank you, but take it lightly because he doesn't really believe in astrology.
  - C. Guide the rest of his life by it.
8. If you were on the set of "The Partridge Family" one day and you could see that David was really mad at something or someone, he would prefer that you:
  - A. Leave him alone and let him work it out himself.
  - B. Walk right up to him and say "Gee, David, you look bugged, is there anything I can do to help?"
  - C. Ask somebody else what he is mad about because you'd like to be able to tell your friends that you knew something about David that they didn't.
9. If you had gone out with David a few times and you had a great idea for something fun to do, you could impress David most by:
  - A. Asking a mutual friend if he thought
