RUMOR:

Does David Cassidy really hide a crew-cut hairdo under a long wig on the Partridge show?

Is it true that Donny Osmond lives in Seattle, Washington with an aunt and uncle?

I've heard that Bobby Sherman will be replacing David Cassidy on the Partridge show—really?

Wow! I hope this is the truth! Are the Osmond Brothers and the Jackson-5 really going to do a TV special together?

I have to know—is David Doremus leaving "Nanny and the Professor" to concentrate on school?

I read somewhere that Barry Williams had a heart attack and will not be back on "The Brady Bunch."

Has Danny Bonaduce really been dating a 19-year-old girl?

Please tell me that Bill Bixby and Brandon Cruz will be on TV next season, please!

I'm confused. I've been told that there are 3 different Tiger Beat Mags. How can that be?

Will Bobby Sherman be playing a cowboy in his series next fall, That's what my friend told me!

Is it true that the Jackson-five are moving back to Gary, Indiana because they hate living in Hollywood?

Is there really a group or family called the Partridge Family which the TV show was patterned after?

TRUTH:

David does not wear a wig on the P.F. show. All of that beautiful hair is as real as David himself!

Donny lives in the two places his family lives and loves the most—the ranch in Utah and the house in Arleta, Calif.

No! Bobby appeared on the P.F. show as a guest star—and that episode was a spin-off for his new series which will begin next fall at 8:00 Saturday nights. The entire cast of Partridge will be the same—David included!

There are, unfortunately no such plans for a special starring those two outasite groups. But sounds like a great idea!

David has made no plans to leave "Nanny . . .". He loves the show and school, and he's doing very well in both!

Barry did not have a heart attack! He's a healthy guy who keeps in tip-top shape. He's still part of "The Brady Bunch!"

Good heavens no! Danny loves "older women," but he's not even dating girls his own age yet—so let's not rush him!

OK! Bill Bixby and Brandon Cruz are indeed returning for their weekly visits to you, via TV, next season on "The Courtship of Eddie's Father."

Tiger Beat, FaVE, Tiger Beat Spectacular, and Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine are all sister magazines, published by the Laufer Company.

No, on Bobby's new show, he will be Bobby Conway, a young song writer in Hollywood.

The J-5 love their hometown, Gary, Indiana, and their second home, Hollywood. They visit friends and relatives in Gary frequently, but their work keeps them in Hollywood!

There isn't a real-life, singing Partridge Family—just the ones you see every week on TV, but aren't they great?
