

AIRPORTS ARE A familiar sight to the Osmonds! Their latest jaunt to Japan was their most exciting trip yet. While Donny is the most popular member of the group in the U.S., Jay and Merrill are the big faves in Japan because most fans are 15 and 16 years old there. When it comes to touring, the Osmonds are experts as sis Marie will tell you in her column on page 3.

MEET BROOKS HUNNICUTT! Brooks is the great performer who goes on before David on his concert tours. Besides her great voice, fans love her gorgeous hair! After each concert, Brooks talks with David's fans and answers all their questions about working with Dave!

exclusive
Meow
 COLOR NEWSREEL!

PLANNING TO TIE THE KNOT this summer, Paula Kelly and Michael Cole surprised even their closest friends and relatives. (Above) In May they attended the Emmy Awards in Hollywood wearing matching velvet suits and gold ruffled shirts. Can you dig it?

DAVID DATING SANDY DUNCAN? No, the pretty lady you've seen in all kinds of TV ads met David when they were posing backstage at the Emmy Awards. Both were presenters on the show. Sandy will star in her own TV series "Funny Face" this fall on CBS. David said she was even cuter and more sparkly in person than she is on TV!

BRANDON CRUZ DIDN'T WIN an Emmy, but he had a ball at the Awards Show! He loves his work, but spends all his time off the set with family & friends. His favorite pastime is riding horses.

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE, but true, Ben Murphy, star of "Alias Smith and Jones," loves girls to call him on the phone! He admits that many times he's accepted dates with fans who have called. "Blind dates," says Ben, "are the most fun because you don't have to do anything special. You can spend all evening just getting to know one another."