Was 1971 a good year for you? I hope so! As I sat down to write this column, it suddenly hit me that we're almost into 1972! And that got me thinking how the past months have treated some of your faves. I decided to check around and find out how they felt about 1971!

DAVID CASSIDY: "It's been the greatest year of my life, really! So many good things have happened that it's hard to remember them all!

"The first thing I can think of is the success of 'The Partridge Family' in the TV ratings. And of course the gold records we've gotten from the albums. Because music is so important to me that's really exciting! Doing the Merv Griffin show with my dad and Shirley was fantastic!

TOGETHER ON TV: SHIRLEY, JACK AND DAVID!

BOTH BOBBY AND WES AGREE: '71 WAS GREAT!

"But a really major happy thing that happened this past year is without a doubt my concert tours! The fact that they have been so successful tells me how my fans feel about me, and doing these shows gets me into more direct contact with them. This is really a groove for me!

"I can only see one low time, and that was my operation. But I've recovered completely, and I'm thankful for that. I'll have to say that 1972 will have to go some to make me any happier!"

BOBBY SHERMAN: "This was a year of new things for me. First of all, my new series, 'Getting Together,' which had to be the biggest and best happening! Then I bought a new house too—although actually I should say it's my first house! I've had so much fun decorating it and it still is far from finished.
