

Elvis Presley fans will be in for a real treat with his newly-released quadruple LP. Aside from containing many of his hit songs, the first 150,000 copies include a swatch of material from some of his favorite on-stage costumes!... August 14th was a special day for the Cowsill family when 18 year old Paul took a bride! He and actress Mary Hull were wed in her Los Angeles home, and after the ceremony took off for a brief honeymoon in the East... "Sports Illustrated" is interested in doing a story on Kurt Russell's baseball career... During hiatus of "Eddie's Father" Bill Bixby appeared in the Ohio stage production of "Catch Me If You Can." Meanwhile, his wife Brenda divided her time between their new home in Brentwood and their Malibu residence... Chad & Shelby Everett became the proud parents of a beautiful little girl, Shannon Kimberly, on August 4. The Everetts said if the baby had been a boy they were planning on naming him Ireland... Congratulations are also in order for together coffee-no-cal and milk in a blender for a refreshing drink with minimum calories. The result: "It's like a coffee-flavored milk shake!"... Columbia Records is proud to report the Raiders' single "Indian Reservation" sold over two million copies—the biggest selling record their label has had in more than eight years... By the way, in honor of the Raiders' platinum disc, paperweights are being designed for distribution among record promoters with Indian head coins on the inside... James Brolin is set to appear in "My Very Best To You" to roll in London this February... The Canadian-based Five Man Electrical Band ("Signs") were well-received on their first American tour and hope to return soon... After eight long months Darby Hinton has finally had the cast removed from his leg, the result of injuries received in a car accident. His reaction upon leaving the doctor's office? "It's great to be free!"... Sergio Mendes has changed his group's name to Brasil '77... Bobby Sherman claims one of his "all-time" favorite gifts from a fan was the 21 foot gum wrapper chain he received on his last birthday!... Word's going around that Chicago's next LP will be a four-record set... Blood, Sweat & Tears hopes to have Paul McCartney produce their next album... Mick & Bianca Jagger had the fish pond in their backyard converted into a swimming pool...

SHELBY, CHAD & SHANNON EVERETT

Trent Lehman began a collection of Indian head pennies... If there was an award for best album title of the year, the Firesign Theater would no doubt win! Check out their latest—"I Think We're All Bozo's On This Bus!"... As you know, Mama Cass married Baron Don Wiedenman recently, but were you aware she lost 52 pounds for the occasion?... Shirley Jones has recorded a single of her own, "I've Still Got My Heart"... Freda Payne's "Bring the Boys

FIVE MAN ELECTRICAL BAND

Home" was banned on Armed Forces Radio... Vincent Van Patten will do another "Medical Center" this season... Robb Royer has split from Bread... If ya dug Gary Rist in "The Young Graduates," be sure to catch his TV debut in an upcoming "Brady Bunch" episode... Did you know that Hope Lange of "The New Dick Van Dyke Show" has a home on the corner of Ho Hum Lane and Easy Street in Carefree, Arizona?!... The Partridge Family's Christmas show will be a musical fantasy in which David Cassidy plays the part of a singing cowboy; and you can look forward to the series expanding one of its shows to an hour this season... Jan-Michael Vincent's movie for television, "Tribes," was just released in London under the name "The Soldier Who Declared Peace"... Karen Carpenter says her brother's weakness is cars, and to prove it owns

MARY AND PAUL COWSILL

Diana Ross and her husband on the birth of their daughter Rhonda Suzanne on August 14... Fans of Chris Stone can look forward to seeing lots of their fave this season in episodes of "Love, American Style," "Marcus Welby, M.D.," and "Mission: Impossible"... Ron Martin offers a favorite recipe for those trying to maintain their weight: Just mix