Dear FLIP,

I'm writing this letter to say how much I enjoy reading FLIP each month, and also to ask you to please print more on the super Jackson 5 in your mag. The J-5 are able to communicate with people—young and old, black and white—and to me this is one of the greatest talents anyone could possibly encounter. I don't know about anyone else, but I am proud to have a group like the Jackson 5 around today.

Dear FLIP,

While staying in California this summer for two weeks, I met the most sweetest person ever. I met Michael Cole at Paramount Studios, and he was just the greatest person ever. I took a picture with him and I am enlarging it to hang on my wall. Thanks, Mike, you're a doll!

Dear FLIP,

I was so happy to hear that Michael Cole and Paula Kelly were finally getting married. I made a toast for them and I'm counting on you to make sure they get to hear it! "To Mike and Paula: To a long, happy, joyous, warm, beautiful and wonderful marriage! Stay well and be happy!"

Dear FLIP,

In all the magazines I've read, I've only seen two letters about Michael Cole. It almost seems nobody cares about him, but I do. I think Michael is the warmest, the kindest, and the most beautiful guy I've ever seen. He's so human, not phoney or conceited like some stars. And he seems quiet; I like quiet guys. But don't let the fact that he's getting married scare you away, because he'll still be our Michael. I hope Michael reads this, because I want him to know how much I love and appreciate him!

Dear FLIP,

Thank you so very much for those great giant "piggyback" posters of Donny Osmond and David Cassidy in the September issue. I absolutely adore them both and have the two pix hanging on my bedroom door.

Dear FLIP,

I just love David Cassidy and the Partridge Family! I watch them every week on television and I have their first and second albums. Every single song is super! I also want to thank you for the two "piggyback" posters in the September issue of FLIP. I liked them so much because I could hang them both up, instead of one. Thank you!

Dear FLIP,

I am writing to simply tell my feelings on David Cassidy. I think he is great. My friends say it's crazy to buy magazines for only David Cassidy, but I do. Words can't express my feelings toward him, but maybe these words can... I love you, David Cassidy!
