

HOLLYWOOD ON PARADE

Take me out to the ballgame. Dean Martin and Jack Lemmon were two big hits at celebrity baseball game.

Do you recognize this pretty lady out of uniform? She's Jane Withers or—Josephine, TV's lady plumber.

JULIE ANDREWS and her husband BLAKE EDWARDS have gone into their own production company. Unlike other Hollywood personalities who are making movies, Julie and Blake are planning on doing two hour feature films for TV.

HENRY FONDA who has had problems with his children has only praise for his son PETER. "I never thought that one day I might be working for my son, but I'd love to be directed by him on screen." In the meantime Henry is doing his own directing. He is currently working on The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial which is being staged in L.A.

JONATHAN WINTERS is also another man who has nothing but praise for his children. Jonathan's son, JAY, will be sharing an art show with his father at the McKenzie Gallery in November.

The pilot film for Heck will start production shortly and will star RICHARD BOONE. Heck is being produced by Universal Studios for NBC-TV.

GEORGE C. SCOTT has started directing on off-Broadway. TRISH VAN DEVERE who played opposite George in The Last Run will appear as the leading lady in the play.

CBS has arranged to have LLOYD BRIDGES and BRODERICK CRAWFORD appear in A Tattered Web, a movie made for TV by Metromedia Producers Corp. Along with Lloyd and Brod, FRANK CONVERSE and MURRAY HAMILTON will also appear.

LAINIE KAZAN who recently gave birth to a little girl without being married, stated: "The young people distrust legalities and know how couples are destroyed by a piece of paper . . . I think our ceremony without a license or clergyman was much more beautiful than rushing off to Las Vegas to get a license and get married in a hurry. PETER and I consider ourselves married even without that piece of paper."

RICHARD HARRIS who has made a nice amount of money from acting recently stated: "Acting is really vomiting in public. Nothing is more painful or explicit than acting because you're present physically doing it in the presence of people who don't understand it. It's a great release when it's over—when you've relived in your mind some painful experience you had years ago and made it work for you now."

MAYOR LINDSAY is not the only one in his family to get his name in print. The Mayor's daughter, KATHY LINDSAY has agreed to model for the Playboy Club. Not as a bunny, but as a model for sleepwear.

NBC Studios is looking for a young unknown to appear in the title role of a Hallmark Hall of Fame series. The show entitled, Lisa concerns a young mentally ill girl who has retreated from the world. All young hopefuls should look into this role as it will be televised sometime next year.

ORSON WELLES who has been known for his portrayal of Macbeth and Othello has made a change in his format. "I only want to make films based on actual problems" is Orson's new outlook when
