

SOMEBODY WANTS TO BE WANTED

Ever since I saw David I just adored him. I wrote a little poem for him that goes like this:
I think I love you,
But that's nothing new!
I only wish . . .
That you'd love me too.

Doesn't somebody want to be wanted?

I do, I do . . .

By wonderful, wonderful YOU!

NEVER TO MEET

David, I love you,
But do you love me?
With all of your fame,
You don't even know my name.

It makes me feel sad when I think of this,
Without my love, what would you miss?

But I know my love for you won't die,

And knowing we'll never meet makes me cry.

Dear Sharon,

I just bought the Partridge Family's 3rd album. On the back it says to join the all-new 1972 Fan Club. I'm already a member of the club. Does this mean I'll have to join all over again? Please explain!

Partridge Lover

Dear Partridge Lover,

There is a brand new 1972 Fan Club Kit just completed for all Partridge fans. So many members of the original club wanted all-new material that the club was completely updated with brand new material and a completely new recording by all the Partridges telling you their secrets, a new booklet, new membership card and huge new color poster of David Cassidy. If you joined last year's club and were pleased, this all new Partridge Fan Club should thrill you! It's an all-new happening for you to join again!

S IS FOR SHIRLEY

S-ings like a bird.

H-as a heart of gold.

I-nterested in what YOU have to say.

R-adiant as can be.

L-oves her work, and family too.
